Author

MICHEL BOURQUE lives in Prince Edward Island, across the sea from New Brunswick where he grew up. He has written English and French adaptations of children's books like A Blue So Blue (Jean-François Dumont, Prix Saint-Exupéry) and Les vacances de Claire (Maxine Trottier and Rajka Kupesic, Mr. Christie's Book Award). Michel is one of the lucky ones who caught Gracie Finley and Glenda Landry's brilliant performances as Anne and Diana in the musical staging of Lucy Maud Montgomery's classic novel. His debut picture book is inspired by their wonderful story

Illustrator

Jean-Luc Trudel is a renowned Montreal based illustrator. This is his third book with Bouton d'or Acadie where he created the marvelous illustration for Le pit à papa, inspired by the childhood story of Prince Edward Island singer-songwriter Angèle Arseneault. The picture book Ma petite boule d'amour, which he created with author, playwright and actress Jasmine Dubé, was short-listed for the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award. More recently, he illustrated Diane Carmel Léger's My Two Grandmothers again at Bouton d'or Acadie.
